Community Service Order

Probationer is sentenced to 5 days jail, stayed pending completion of 60 hours of community service. Community service is defined as voluntary unpaid work for a non-profit agency or faith organization. Examples include animal shelters, food distribution centers, hospice, youth mentoring, or senior assistance. Opportunities can be found at <https://www.handsonsacto.org/>.

Probationer must provide proof of completion of community service via email to SacramentoCountyDCSS@saccounty.gov at least 48 hours prior to the next hearing. Proof must be on agency or organization letterhead with a date, signature, and contact information for someone who can verify the service hours. Proof must specify the dates and times community service was performed. Self-certification will not be accepted. Failure to complete the hours or provide proof as ordered may result in imposition of jail time.
